

Human Dignity - DRAMA

We are all unique and should treat everyone with love and respect because we are made in the image of God.

Practical Drama lessons:

- Ensure that everyone's ideas are listened to and respected in group work.
- Build confidence by giving each person a chance to perform.
- Help pupils understand other people's feelings by acting in different roles.
- Ensure that feedback is given kindly and helps everyone improve.
- Encourage pupils to express themselves clearly and proudly.

In our curriculum learning:

- Hansel and Gretel shows how every character has their own thoughts and feelings.
- Billy Liar explores why honesty and respect for others matter.
- An Inspector Calls makes pupils think about how every life is important regardless of social class.
- Stanislavski's approach teaches how to act truthfully and show real human experiences.
- Watching live theatre helps pupils value creativity and effort.

Common Good

Doing what is good for everybody, not just ourselves.
We need to think of everyone, and work towards what's best for everyone.

Practical Drama lessons:

- Group tasks teach pupils to work together for the best result.
- Sharing ideas helps everyone learn and succeed.
- Rehearsals show how teamwork makes performances stronger.
- Pupils learn to listen and support each other in practical work.
- Drama games build trust and cooperation among the group.

In our curriculum learning:

- Hansel and Gretel activities show how characters need each other to survive.
- Billy Liar highlights the problems caused when people only think of themselves.
- An Inspector Calls teaches that our actions affect the whole community.
- Brecht's style encourages pupils to think about social change for everyone.
- Live theatre reviews focus on how a whole cast works together for success.

Drama Solidarity

We are all part of one family, by promoting peace and justice, we can bring the community together and live in unity.

Practical Drama lessons:

- Drama lessons encourage pupils to support each other in performances.
- Group work helps pupils feel part of a team and included.
- Warm-up games build trust and friendship in the class.
- Pupils learn to solve problems together during rehearsals.
- Sharing success and celebrating effort brings the group closer.

In our curriculum learning:

- Hansel and Gretel shows how characters work together in hard times.
- Billy Liar explores family relationships and the need for honesty.
- An Inspector Calls teaches that we are all connected and responsible for each other.
- Brecht's plays focus on justice and fairness for all people.
- Live theatre encourage pupils to think about unity in a performance.

Subsidiarity

Decisions are made at the most appropriate level so that all those affected can contribute and have a voice.

Practical Drama lessons:

- Pupils make decisions in their groups about how to perform scenes.
- Everyone has a chance to share ideas and take part in planning.
- Roles are divided fairly so all pupils can contribute.
- Groups choose how to rehearse and solve problems together.
- Teachers guide but let pupils lead their own creative work.

In our curriculum learning:

- Hansel and Gretel tasks let pupils decide how to show character feelings.
- Billy Liar rehearsals give pupils control over how scenes are staged.
- An Inspector Calls analysis allows pupils to share their own interpretations.
- Stanislavski work encourages pupils to make choices about character motivation.
- Live theatre evaluations let pupils express their own opinions about performance.
