- Candidate not having access to a member of senior staff after the publication of results to discuss/make decision on the submission of a review/enquiry
- Candidate request for return of work after moderation and work not available/disposed of earlier than allowed in the regulations
- Candidate (or parent/carer) unhappy with a result (complainant to refer via exams officer to awarding body post-results services)
- Candidate (or parent/carer) unhappy with a centre decision not to support a clerical re-check, a review of marking, a review of moderation or an appeal (complainant to refer via Exams officer or Matthew Holden, Deputy Headteacher to the centre's internal appeals procedure)
- Centre fails to adhere to its internal appeals procedure
- Centre applied for the wrong post-results service/for the wrong script for a candidate
- Centre missed awarding body deadline to apply for a post-results service
- Centre applied for a post-results service for candidate without gaining required candidate consent/permission

Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or their parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification they are following, St Augustine's encourages the candidate to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. A concern or complaint should be made in person, by email or in writing to the head of centre – Mrs Hunt, Headteacher.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or their parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- A formal complaint should be submitted in writing by completing a complaints form.
- Forms are available from at the end of this policy.
- Completed forms should be returned to either Mr Holden, Deputy Headteacher or Mrs Hunt, Headteacher
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 3 calendar days

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The head of centre, Mrs Hunt, will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion

- The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 3 working weeks]

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted by following the centre's internal appeals procedure and completing an internal-appeals form
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 3 calendar days
- The appeal will be referred to the head of centre – Mrs Hunt - Headteacher

The head of centre – Mrs Hunt will inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
